CROFTING COMMISSION

Public Services Reform (Scotland) 2010 Act

Section 31: Duty to provide information on certain expenditure incurred during 2023/24.

During the year ending 31 March 2024, the Crofting Commission incurred expenditure associated with the categories provided within section 31 of the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010 as follows:

| Section 31 (2) | | | | |
|-------------------------|-----------------|-------------|-------------|--|
| Public Relations | Overseas Travel | Hospitality | Consultancy | |
| £62.975* | £Nil | £6,405 | £- | |
| £43,082 | | | | |

^{*}Includes operational expenditure within the flowing categories:

- Statutory Regulatory Advertising
- Design & issue of Statutory Annual Notice (Crofting Census)
- Statutory Annual Report & Accounts: Including Gaelic translation
- Website Design, Development and Maintenance, including Gaelic translation
- General Publicity Costs
- Strategic Communications

Some of the work undertaken by the Crofting Commission includes an element which falls within the definition of public relations work as contained within the Scottish Government guidance on compliance with the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010. These activities include the formulation and dissemination of messages about the work and role of the Crofting Commission and on issues concerning our principal function, which is regulating crofting, re-organising crofting, promoting the interests of crofting and keeping under review matters relating to crofting. As it is not possible to identify the exact amount of time spent by staff on public relations work the Commission has published the overall salary costs associated with its Communications function. It should be noted that this does not represent the salary of one individual and also includes employer national insurance and pension contributions.

Section 31 (3) As soon as is reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year each listed public body must publish a statement specifying the amount, date, payee and subject-matter of any payment made during that financial year which has a value in excess of £25,000.
